

AGRICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL SHOW.

DISTRICT COMMITTEE PROCEEDINGS.

TUMKUR DISTRICT.

The 23rd August 1888.

Proceedings of the Tumkur District Committee for selecting exhibits of the District for the coming Agricultural and Industrial Show at Mysore on 15th October 1888.

President.

Mr. P. N. Krishna Murti.

Members.

Mr. Dalal.

„ Panchanatha Rao.

„ Krishna Rao.

„ Varadarajaiengar.

„ Hema Hanumantaiya.

„ Srinivasa Rao.

„ Revenue Sheristadar Naranachar.

Reverend Gulliford.

Mr. Venkatacharlu.

„ Ramadasappa.

„ Nallappa.

„ Venkatachalaia.

„ Tiruvengada Mudaliar.

„ Dallali Kenchappa.

„ Audi Seshaiya.

SECTION A. LIVE STOCK.

Class I and II.—Horses, Ponies and Cattle.

The officer in charge of Government Farm should be requested to send good horses of Kunigal breed. The Amildars of Gubbi, Tiptur and Pavagada be requested to send good pairs of draught and trotting bullocks, calves and bulls.

SECTION B. VEGETABLE PRODUCTIONS.

Class I.—Field Produce, (a) Cereals or Grains. (b) Pulses.

Each Amildar be requested to make a collection of best grains grown in his Taluk and informed that the space to be allotted for grains is to be limited to 18 square feet.

Class II.—Garden Plantation and Jungle produce.

The Forest Probationer should be requested to send best specimens of jungle produce.

The taluks mentioned in the margin should send best specimens of garden produce noted opposite to them.

Gubbi Plantain, Orange.
Chiknayakanhalli Kengalpur arecanut bunches, Timmanahalli plantation, Navala cocoanuts.
Tiptur Gangapani cocoanuts.
Maddagiri Pomegranate and fig and tobacco.
Kunigal Sugar-cane and Ananas.
Sira Agrahar Kaulamita orange, betel-leaves and ginger (raw).
Tumkur Raw ginger, betel-leaves, chakkavithana fruit and maragenasu.

Class III.—Fibres (a) and (b).

Each taluk to exhibit a general collection of fibres, the number being limited to three collections.

The Amildars of Gubbi and Kunigal to send a few collections of silk and cocoons.

The Sira Amildar and Turuvekere Deputy Amildar to send wools.

Class IV.—Spices, Condiments, &c.

That each Sub-Committee be requested to send a general collection of condiments as specified under this class.

Class V.—Sugars.

Kunigal and Tumkur to send jaggory and Sira to send date jaggory. These to be limited to three of each sort. Honey and bees-wax from Maddagiri and Devarayadurga Forests through the Forest Probationers.

Class VI.—Dyes and Colors.

The Sub-Committees of Tumkur and Maddagiri be requested to send in a collection of dyes, also colored cotton and silk from Gubbi and Chiknayakanhalli.

Class VII.—Miscellaneous.

The Deputy Amildar of Koratagere to exhibit a good collection of medicinal plants and roots, gums and resins from Siddarbeta. Tumkur and Kunigal to send native scents and essential oils as also other oils.

Tumkur, Maddagiri, Gubbi and Kunigal Sub-Committees to send good specimens of ghee.

Class VIII.—Vegetables and Fruits—None.

SECTION C. MACHINES, IMPLEMENTS AND TOOLS.

Reverend Gulliford to be requested to send in knives and tools. Kunigal Committee to exhibit silk reeling machines. Tumkur to send a cart suitable for agricultural purposes. Tumkur Amildar to get a paddy threshing machine made by Mestri Rajanna.

SECTION E. FINE ARTS.

Tumkur Amildar to send specimens of sculpture and also lacquered ware or toys.

SECTION F.

Class I.—Hardware and Cutlery.

Tumkur and Gubbi to exhibit iron, brass and copper ware.

Class II.—Earthen ware.

Every Amildar to send a few specimens of earthen ware.

Class III.—Glassware.

Bangles from Koratagere Sub-Division to be selected for exhibition.

Class IV.—Furniture.

Reverend Gulliford to kindly prepare specimens of furniture of a cheap, neat and durable pattern. Tumkur Amildar to arrange for a separate set being prepared for competition.

Class V.—Basketware.

Every Amildar to arrange for exhibiting basketware.

Class VI.—Textile Manufacture (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e).

Gubbi and Chiknayakanhalli to forward specimens of Sadis and Dhotis, &c.

(f) Woollen Fabrics.

Chiknayakanhalli and Sira to send a few Cumblis, &c., of the best sort.

(g.) Fibres.

Gubbi to send gonipatte and bags and Tiptur to send cordage of all sorts.

(h.) Matting.

Kunigal and Sira to send mats of best specimens.

Class VII.—Leather.

Tumkur and Sira to send a pair of shoes and native slippers each. Sira also to send goats and sheeps' skins. Tumkur Amildar to get a bridle and country khogir made and sent for Exhibition.

Class VIII.—Stationery.

Sealing wax may be sent from Maddagiri and Mr. Srinivasa Rao be requested to make a good collection of forest produce. Taluk Committees to be requested to encourage private individuals to exhibit any specialities.

All non-perishable articles will be collected at each Taluk Head-quarters where they can be inspected by the Sub-Committees. All articles unfitted for exhibition or not worth their carriage be excluded.

All Sub-Committees are requested to use every effort to send up the articles for the Exhibition in a neat manner.

P. N. KRISHNA MURTI,
President.